

I appreciate not being bothered during dinner. Please do not overturn this law. Can you please address instead the reason why Oprah was not fined in the same manner as Howard Stern for equally offending material. Free speech is what makes this country the model for others.